In her role as Assistant Vice President for Development at the University of Michigan, Shari Fox has senior responsibility for the Office of Gift Planning, Stewardship, and several constituent fundraisers. Before joining the University of Michigan in 2006, Shari was Director of Gift Planning with The University of Cincinnati Foundation for almost four years. Prior to joining UC, Shari led all development and community relations efforts for Beech Acres, a 160-year old child-focused family service agency in Cincinnati and worked in endowment and planned gift administration at Fifth Third Bank.

Shari is a past chair and current board member of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning (formerly the National Committee on Planned Giving) and a past president of the Greater Cincinnati Planned Giving Council. She has served on the Editorial Advisory Board for the monthly newsletter Planned Giving Today, and she is currently an active member of the Planned Giving Roundtable of Southeast Michigan and the Washtenaw County Estate Planning Council.

Shari received her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a major in Finance from Miami University and her M.B.A. with a concentration in Management from Xavier University.

Shari enjoys travel and reading and is a closet writer, penning personal essays, memoir, and opinion editorials, perhaps for publication in the future.
