

Donna J. Snyder

Assistant General Counsel, University of Michigan

Since arriving in 1997, her primary practice has been charitable giving. She assists development staff and others with the legal, tax, policy, and due diligence issues of giving current and planned gifts to the University. She works closely with development staff and occasionally with donors on donors' restrictions, unmarketable and tangible assets, and other matters relating to donating to the University. Areas of expertise include affirmative action restrictions in scholarships. She serves on the boards of the Planned Giving Roundtable of Southeast Michigan and of the Glacier Hills Foundation in Ann Arbor, and is co-chair of Leave a Legacy, Washtenaw County. She was previously Trust Counsel at Fifth Third Bank in Cincinnati, Ohio."
