

MATTHEW M. WALLACE, C.P.A., J.D.

Matthew M. Wallace, C.P.A., J.D. is an estate planning attorney in practice since 1986. He is founder and president of Matthew M. Wallace, P.C., a law firm with offices in Port Huron, Michigan. Mr. Wallace limits his practice to Estate Planning and Elder Law, Business Planning and Real Estate. The focus of Mr. Wallace's practice is Estate Planning, including Charitable Planning, Elder Law, Medicaid Planning and Business Succession Planning. Mr. Wallace believes that one of the greatest concerns our families face today is estate preservation in the event of disability or death. Mr. Wallace assists his clients to ensure that their estate planning hopes, fears, dreams and aspirations for their families are addressed in order to protect themselves, their family and the legacy that they leave for them.

Mr. Wallace is an active member of many professional and civic organizations including National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, Michigan Forum of Estate Planners LLC, Port Huron Area Estate Planning Council, Greater Port Huron Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club of Port Huron, Port Huron Yacht Club, Port Huron Schubert Male Chorus and St. Clair County United Way.

Mr. Wallace is a frequent speaker and educator on Estate Planning, Elder Law and Business Planning and Real Estate.

Mr. Wallace has earned his certificate in the State Bar of Michigan Probate & Estate Planning Certificate Program in 2005. He has earned the designation of Advanced Wealth-Strategist Planner from the Esperti Peterson Institute in 2002. He received his Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit, Michigan in 1986. In addition to being an attorney, Mr. Wallace is also a Certified Public Accountant, a designation he earned in 1982. Mr. Wallace received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree with distinction from the University of Michigan Business School in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1980.
