

Laura Tomassi-Miller, CFRE, Principal, Tomassi-Miller Strategies

Laura is a consultant focusing on non-profit fundraising and strategy. She is passionate about helping mission-driven organizations maximize their impact and plan for long-term sustainability. Her work includes benchmarking and research, fund development strategy, feasibility studies and campaign counsel, and more. Laura is active in several professional associations in Southeast Michigan and serves as a board member for MiSide in Detroit. She has an MBA from Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis and a BA from the University of Michigan.